Sir,

With reference to your D.O.No.G.11792 dated 14th Februa 1924, regarding the character and antecedents of Mr.Appadorie I have the honour to state that Mr.Pritchard in his confiden tial report states that Mr.Appadorier is one of the leaders of the South Indian Sakya Buddisht Association, a branch of which is situated in Champion Reefs, that there is personally nothing against the character of Mr.Iyer but that in the year 1918 there was a great deal of trouble as "Tamilian" was casting reflections and aspersions against other religio and that on account of this there was trouble between Audi-

Dravidas and Buddishts and that he (District Superinte dent of Police) had great difficulty in averting a seri breach of the peace. It is added that the object of thi paper was to convert Audi Dravidas to Buddism and the - Hindu Religion was held up to contempt and that the per al Assistant to the D.I.G. for Railways and C.I.D.Madra had to be written to, to warn the editor not to cast - - aspersions against other religions.
